The Hellwig Family Education Fund, a benefactor of Resurrection School, subsidizes tuition increases for all Resurrection School families allowing the school to provide an affordable Catholic education that develops each child's spiritual and academic potential in a Christ-centered, peace-filled, and family-involved environment.

Discount pricing is available for semi-annual and annual payments, and sibling discounts, reflected in the below rates, are offered for children in grades K-8. A Transitional Kindergarten sibling discount is available for siblings enrolled in the full-day Transitional Kindergarten program. Tuition may be paid annually, semi-annually or over 10 months.
